Good Mother Aurora Andrew Prior

Good Mother Aurora tells of a slave mother's heroic attempt to reunite her family at a time when the British Government was intent upon abolishing slavery in the Cape Colony. It is a profound and fascinating exploration of the nature of slavery, its abolition, and the determination and zeal of an ordinary mother in the face of brutal opposition, sexual oppression, jealousy and revenge.

Based on a true account held in the Cape Archives when the British Government was phasing out slavery in its colonies, Good Mother Aurora, details how the flaming desire for freedom and justice, pushed a mother to overcome fearsome obstacles, to discover the joy of a reunited family.
