Drucker on Leadership: New Lessons from the Father of Modern Management (Chinese Edition)

William A.Cohen

In 2005, ""the father of modern management"" Peter Drucker died. Although the master of the generation passed away, those forward-looking global managers still continuously learn and practice his thought of the eternal across space and time. Leadership is the core element of management , and the urgent need of managers draw on leadership and the teaching of the Drucker wisdom the endures for a long time. In this book, Drucker's first doctor of management graduates William a. Cohen, discusses his understanding from Peter aboout leadership. This book reveals many thought about leadership which is very surprising. Even it may shock drucker's followers. Drucker's teaching of the leadership not only succeeded in saving many organization in face of the plight of failure, but also help many organizations to make outstanding achievements.
