Staring the Dragon in the Eye: The Hidden Victims of Animal Extremists Katharine Dokken

Set up by a jealous fellow breeder and a crazy stalker, the Whispering Pines poodles and their loving owner were the victims of an animal raid staged by a rogue humane investigator. Ultimately they were all stolen under the color of law. This is their story. While legend is full of stories of brave knights facing down and slaying evil fire breathing dragons, in real life the dragon frequently wins. In this shocking account of one dog owner's battle with the dragon of animal rights extremism - a true story in which the dragon prevailed - we learn the true nature of the animal rights movement, and how the real victims of this movement are the animals themselves.
