Gwendolyn Osborne

The Black Man; An Endangered Species discusses the social degradation of the Black man. This book was written to examine the status of the Black man by first investigating historical accounts that have led up to their current status, and then addressing the day-to-day issues that seem to plague Black communities. The objective of this book is to help Black men find the strength to empower themselves and inspire them to seek positive, reputable means of bettering themselves for present and future generations.
