Sometimes Love Just Isn't Enough (Volume 1) Markkel M Wright

When you think of love what comes to mind? Is it the feeling, security, entertainment, or values? How much will you sacrifice for it? How hard will you fight for it? What are you bringing to the table to make sure it lasts? Paris, a teenage girl who has a love for fashion and modeling yet a passion to be swept off of her feet still believes in fairytales. She hopes to meet and marry a rich prince charming like all the Disney princesses but isn't satisfied when she finds out reality isn't as magical. Being young, in love, and trying to please everybody she may have bitten off a little more than she can chew and is forced to face the harsh realities when she meets a drug dealer and later a hopeless romantic. Will Paris know what to do if the love of her life stares her in the face, or is she just in love with the idea of being in love?
