Law of the Desert Born & Desert Death Song (Louis L'Amour) Louis L'Amour

Dramatization

Two cassettes, 2 hours

This collection includes:

Law of the Desert Born

Against his better judgment, when Sheriff Gates formed his posse, he opened the jail and let Lopez ride along. Shad Marone, foreman of the Running F Ranch, had shot and killed Jud Bowman, the arrogant young owner of the Bar B Ranch. Lopez had been a hand at the Running F until the Sheriff caught him with rustled Bar B cattle. Now Lopez swears he's the one who can track Marone down.

Desert Death Song

Powder Basin - the broken, rugged country at the edge of a dry, forbidding desert - holds more hiding places than most men could find. Nat Bodine knows most of them; holed up in the Basin hills by a posse of over a hundred men, he needs them more than ever before. Jim Morton knows that if anyone is going to escape this posse, it's Bodine, just as he knows that Bodine is the kind of man who wouldn't commit the crime of which he's accused - and who, if forced, would seek his freedom in the savage desert sands.
