This book calls for destruction. A total destruction, in the churches of the West, of all that eclipses Jesus Christ' absolute emphasis on eternity. The ideas, ideologies, and values of today's secularized institutions have so infected the thinking of the majority of professing believers (often unconsciously) that we have witnessed the creation of on "Americanized" Christianity whose emphases are antithetical to that which the Savior clearly set forth as the ultimate purpose for which He came. The result has been the forfeiture of the felt Presence and power of the Lord Himself, which when experienced, produces not merely professed forgiven followers but purified, self-crucified intercessors who share the eternal power of that first Christian Pentecost and that which was manifested during those supernatural visitations of God's Holy Spirit throughout the history of the church. Time is short and God is seeking those who will accept the "how to" of recovering the power of the "eternally new," which becomes clear if we are willing again to receive God's Word on God's terms. If you love your life in this world, you will probably hate this book. If you (are willing to) hate your life in this world, you may be blessed by reading it. (John 12:25)
