Tenia had her heart set on college, but before college could begin, the young woman wanted to take a year off to see the country. She didn't have enough saved to see the world, but a long road trip in her own country was doable for the young women. Starting off with a friend, their paths go separate ways and Tenia is left a thousand miles away from home alone. Resolve to enjoy her break from school, Tenia goes on without Meeka and she soon finds herself in trouble that she doesn't even see coming.

Her savior is a creature that it not supposed to exist and though she is taken aback, the dark eyes hold a humanity that pulls her forward. Tenia is dropped off and though she is alone again, she cannot stop thinking about the dragon that had saved her. With a pull that she didn't understand, Tenia sets out to find it again. The biggest surprise comes when it, changes into a human. She then finds out that Bradey is not the only one. He also has a brother and they both send her down a rabbit-hole that is to become her new life.

Bradey wants her from the moment he breaks all the rules to save her. Shifters are not to show their true forms, let alone save a human and then let them go. He tries to forget about her, knowing his brother Raild is right, but when she goes back to the same spot he had saved her, he knows that she feels the same pull he does, because she is there waiting. Will Tenia be able to accept his true form and love him like no one else has been able to, or is Grive family line destined to end with the two brothers??
