Legendary coach John Wooden is best known for his basketball success with the UCLA Bruins. Yet long after Wooden retired from coaching, he continued to make a tremendous impact on both youth and adults – at summer camp. In Camp With Coach Wooden, author Greg Hayes recalls the gentle power of watching a legend at work. Hayes witnessed the beloved coach mentor, mold, teach, and inspire young players and coaches of all ages, leaving a legacy that seeped into the future of all those he encountered. Filled with timeless basketball and life wisdom from Coach Wooden himself, this recollection of those summer days reveals a strong and steady leader, as well as a humble hero who did not disappoint.
