The Mill on the Floss George Eliot

The Mill on the Floss Tom and Maggie Tulliver are growing up at Dorlcote Mill on the River Floss in Lincolnshire, England. When the book begins, Maggie is a young girl but as she grows we explore her relationships with her brother Tom and Philip Wakem, a hunchbacked, intellectual friend. The Tulliver family eventually lose the mill in a financial crisis, and further grief ensues when the sibling lose their father. Tom leaves school to work, hoping to restore the family's estate. Maggie languishes, however, her intellect wasted in isolation. This leads her to a period of spirituality, which is soon tested by friend Philip Wakem.
