Booze Will Do You In Heinz Dinter

The must-read book for those who struggle with alcoholism and those who want to help. Within these pages I give you cause to think about the true worth of life and caring for those in need. As you turn the pages, I share with you my very sad and shocking experience trying to help someone who is in the clutches of this evil phenomenon called alcoholism and who refuses to see the abyss of miserable pain and suffering when the overabundance of alcohol has taken hold of what was once a body full of life. In addition to telling a brutally honest and revealing story, I offer information to help understand and take the action necessary to slay the dragon and bring body and soul back to health and peace-of-mind living. Here's inspirational reading that opens eyes wide and motivates hearts. There's no chuckle but much to think. Read real-life experiences and thought-provoking messages. They are for those who embrace the Golden Rule of life.
